

THE WINE FRONT

Faber Vineyard Swan Verdelho 2011

Posted on 09 July 2012.

Winemaker John Griffiths is something of a Verdelho evangelist, though he's also sensible enough to say, simply, that 'it's a bloody good drink'.

Clean and fresh, not overtly tropical, more like honeysuckle, almond and white fleshed fruit. It's full in the mouth, but very well balanced, with just the right amount of clean acidity and has an unforced, almost dare I say, refined nature. Lovely texture and a lime-accented finish. Yum.
