Faber Vineyard Reserve Shiraz 2012

Posted on 22 February 2015.

I've tasted this a couple of times so I thought I should pop up a review. Not sure where it's at in terms of a release date.

Another seductive release. Firm and ripe but well-mannered, with coffee cream, violet, dense plum, asphalt and fresh fennel flavours fleshing out and ripping through the palate. Tannin applies the leg-ropes and then helps shoot the flavours out through the finish. Power and control. It needs time to harmonise further but this is a beauty.
